

Punch

A BOUTIQUE INVESTMENT ADVISORY

Danielle Fischer

Operations Analyst

Danielle has a track record of operations experience that includes a variety of roles at Merrill Lynch and several years at Punch, where she puts her positive, can-do attitude to work for clients day after day. She's a master of follow ups, follow throughs, and finding answers. Her actions speak volumes to clients, who know her to be their go-to advocate when issues arise. She cares deeply about the work she does and how it impacts everyone around her, which is why it's statistically impossible to find someone who doesn't like working with Danielle (we dare you to try).

Years at Punch:
10

Years in the Industry:
23

Personal Interests:

- Painting
- Walking
- Yardwork

Danielle resides in Zimmerman with her husband Mark and their two children—the loves and lights of her life. In addition to being an avid dog lover, Danielle likes a good hike or an afternoon of painting with her kids. She also enjoys watching her kids grow into the wonderful people they are becoming.