

Punch

A BOUTIQUE INVESTMENT ADVISORY

Anthony Peralá, CFA

Research Analyst

Anthony knew the right opportunity to pursue his passion for small and microcap equity investing was out there, but it required a little patience. After seven years honing his research skills for two different fixed income asset managers, he joined Punch & Associates as a Research Analyst.

Anthony graduated from The College of St. Scholastica with a B.A. in Economics and Villanova University with a M.S. in Finance. He lives in Plymouth with his wife and son. He is very thankful he doesn't have to juggle chasing around a toddler and studying for the CFA exams, having become a CFA® charterholder in 2018. He enjoys traveling and hiking with his family, reading, and baseball.
