

Punch

A BOUTIQUE INVESTMENT ADVISORY

Matthew Peterson

Systems Reconciliation Analyst

Matthew joined our team in May 2023 as a Systems Reconciliation Analyst. He will be diligently monitoring our data across several platforms to ensure effective data management and integrity.

Prior to starting at Punch, Matthew worked for a local golf company in sales and support, and he also worked as an assistant golf professional. He graduated from Minnesota State University, Mankato with a B.S. in Finance. He is currently taking a Google Data Analytics course. He lives in Spring Lake Park and loves living an active and healthy lifestyle. He frequents the gym and plays soccer multiple times a week. If you can't find him at the gym or soccer field, chances are he is playing pickleball or golf.
